Uniform
A number of students have been wearing colourful joggers instead of black shoes. Please remember that joggers are only permitted on Wednesday and black shoes are required on all other days.

Head Lice
There have been a number of reports of head lice could you please check and treat your son/daughters head regularly. With the warmer weather these annoying little critters seem to be more prevalent. Like most things it is a case of prevention is better than the cure!

Canberra Excursion
Our excursion is only 18 sleeps away! Like any long planned for trip there are all those little administrative tasks that need to be completed before we board the bus. Could you please attend to these tasks ASAP.
*Complete payment of this excursion.
*Complete medical information and return to school.
*Check and update (if necessary) emergency contact details and return to school.
If you require another ‘What to pack’ note please ask for one and don’t leave it until the last minute.
St Cath’s Netball Gala Day
Well done to all the students who played netball last Friday at the St Cath’s gala day. Congratulations to the junior boys team who were unbeaten on the day and took out 1st place.

P&C messages

Thank you

A big thank you to Bulga Coal for their donation to our school P&C for our newly installed canteen floor. As you can see it looks amazing and we really appreciate your support.

Chocolate Drive

Thank you to all the families who have already sold their chocolate boxes. If you would like to sell more there are still some boxes in the office.
